Toni Schwabe, a life-long Covenanter who hails from Minnesota, is a sought-after retreat speaker from New England to California! She is fun, dynamic, and thoughtful and prepared to share the message of Nehemiah and discipleship with us ~ hmmm, you may need to attend the retreat to see the connection!

She's filled various roles in Women Ministries and written for InSpirit magazine. She credits God for bringing her through her tough times, stating that those tough times are there so we can learn to depend on God more.
